WHAT WE DO - AJAN

AJAN facilitates and coordinates efforts of Jesuits in the fight against HIV and AIDS in Africa through Networking, Communication, Capacity Building, Advocacy, Resource Mobilization and Fundraising. Jesuits efforts in the fight against HIV and AIDS in Africa include offering services such as HIV Care and Treatment, Psycho-social Support through Voluntary Counseling and Testing, Spiritual and Psycho-social Counseling and Integral Human Development through livelihood support and giving education sponsorship to orphans and vulnerable children affected and infected with HIV and AIDS. AJAN through its AJAN HIV and AIDS Prevention Programme for the Youth (AHAPPY) Programme seeks to empower the youth in Africa to live responsibly. The AJAN Resource Centre (ARC) gives various audiences a platform to access HIV and AIDS resources through its online and physical library.

− Central Africa Province (ACE)

In the Central African Province (ACE), AJAN operates in the Democratic Republic of Congo. Centre Maisha (http://parlons-sida.org/) and the Foyer Louis de Gonzague (Aloysius Gonzaga Forum) are leading AJAN HIV and AIDS Projects in Kisangani and Kikwit regions respectively. The projects offers holistic and personalized care to people infected and affected with HIV and AIDS and also carries out HIV and AIDS Awareness activities especially among the youth by encouraging them to live positively. Other Jesuit Parishes in DRC with active HIV and AIDS Ministry include St Pierre Claver in Bukavu, Jesuit High Schools and Colleges of formation such as the faculty of philosophy of St Pierre Canisius

+ Eastern Africa Province (AOR)

+ Zambia-Malawi Province (ZAM)

+ Zimbabwe-Mozambique Province (ZIM):

− North-west Africa Province (ANW)

In this region (Togo, Chad, Central African Republic (CAR), Benin, Burkina Faso). HIV and AIDS related activities include Youth against AIDS Clubs and courses on value-based HIV prevention approaches for students. Parishes have active Action Committee on AIDS (PACA) whose volunteers visit people living with HIV and AIDS giving psycho-social support to already formed HIV and AIDS Support Groups at the Parishes.
